Graphic Design Internship Description

Organization: Last Call Nationwide, LLC

Requirements/Skills: The graphic design intern will be actively enrolled in, or a recent graduate of, a university graphic design, art or other related program. Current students will preferably have at least sophomore standing with a GPA of 2.5 or higher.

The individual must create graphic design work for both online and offline marketing campaigns, promotions and branding. Experience with Photoshop and Illustrator is required. The graphic design intern will be mentored by the owner of Last Call Marquette. The owner will help the intern prioritize tasks and focus on multiple projects and deadlines simultaneously. The intern will work approximately 5 hours per week. Access to a computer (preferably a Mac) is mandatory.

Payment will be the items produced that the intern can put into their portfolio, as well as real-world work experience. The owner/supervisor can be used as a reference for future job searches.

Responsibilities:

- Assisting to further establish the brand (through external promotions and creative ads)
- Creating ads to be displayed on LastCallMqt.com
- Designing promotional items (stickers, t-shirts, other 'swag' items)
- Produce fliers and handouts for distribution to promote events and LastCallMqt.com

To be considered, email your resume and three design samples in jpeg (800 x 600 pixel) or PDF format to Jeffrey Matthias at JMatt@lastcallmqt.com.

No phone calls please.
